WRITING

Many people agree or disagree with each other that the television is not very good for humanity. Like everywhere we can see in television bright and dark side. At one side stand TV programmes that teaches children, or educational programmes. At the other side... well there stands a big one stinky pile of rubbish.

So, there is no particular answer to question about Today's television. Many people will say that "our television is bad and destroys our souls and our morale". But. Apart from educational programmes for kids or teenager, or even adults, and good non-educational films, you also need to remember about stereotypical "John", who works on a hard work, and when he comes home to his wife, <sup>who</sup> ~~which~~ he doesn't love anymore, to his children, who irritates him, "John" needs a football or a good blockbuster.

Because those "bad" TV programmes are his saviors.

Also, personally, I think that we have more possibilities than we ever had. If we will get rid of that big pile of junk like "Voronyi", "Unver" and replace them with something excellent, and interesting, we will have "good television" like everyone wants.

In the end, I will say a few words about today's programmes quality.

They are terrible. No, seriously, they are so terrible that I can't even express ~~how~~.

We definitely need to improve quality of our TV, or in not so far future we will have a big stupid crowd, instead of smart and individual people.
